Death and Resurrection

Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. ~ Romans 6:4

Easter Images. Easter is full of fun and friendly images. We talk about butterflies that begin as caterpillars without a lot of value and who become something beautiful through their “death.” Easter conjures up visions of bunnies and springtime and eggs, again signs of new life in nature around us. Eggs are an especially good image, being something wonderfully alive that comes from what seems like a hard and disappointing rock of an egg.

New Life. These images make great sense when we focus on the celebration of Easter. Jesus’ death seems like the end, but we are surprised with God’s new life and new beginning. Jesus’ resurrection points to new life for all people. His death meant the end of our death, and his resurrection calls us into new life with God, a new life that is amazingly better than our previous lives.

Death and Life. While Jesus’ death and resurrection are the most important death and resurrection we celebrate during Easter, it is also a good season to consider smaller deaths and resurrections in our lives. Each time we face an ending, we also face the opportunity for a new beginning. Each time we let go of something that has been a part of our lives, we make room for something new and exciting. We die to the old thing, and rise to a new thing.

Vision 2020 and Beyond. This year Prince of Peace is also looking at the little deaths of the past and the new life we have in the future. That is not to say the church is “dying,” but only that we are facing some changes that will affect how we choose to move forward with our life together. Some things may continue to be a great way for us to live. Other things might need some tweaks and changes. Some things might be at a point of death. But however that looks when we figure it out, we are facing something new together, a new life with each other and with God. We may not know exactly how that will look in another year or so, but God does. And we can walk forward into that new life knowing that we have the best example of death and resurrection to follow; the example of Jesus, who shows us that death is not the end, but only the beginning of new and amazing things.

For this thy dying sorrow, thy pity without end?
Oh, make me thine forever,

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded, verse 3*

Easter comes late this year. As I write this in the first week of March it seems like winter will never end. As you read these words you may be beginning to think that Lent will never end.

There is a reason we travel this Lenten journey with Jesus and follow him into to Holy Week. It gives us a chance to consider our brokenness and then to be overwhelmed by the love that sustained Jesus through his passion so that we might experience his love and salvation.

Along the way we are moved with the power of the story and with the music that though it may not be the happiest music we sing all year is music that opens the depths of our hearts.

Easter is a happy day – a day of celebration. Jesus is alive and death is defeated! But it comes at a price – the humiliation, suffering and death of Jesus the Son of God.

Jesus walked this path for you and for me. He invites us to join him, through Lent, into Holy Week, and at last to the celebration of the Resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Blessings in Christ,

Pastor Jeff

Maundy Thursday Service and Agape Meal

Our Maundy Thursday service will take a different shape this year.

We will gather in Fellowship Hall at 7:00 pm on Thursday April 18th and together share an Agape Meal. This is an ancient practice of combining a meal and a worship service as in a similar way Jesus and the disciples gathered together on the night in which he was betrayed.

Together we will not only share a meal but we will hear the story of that night and have opportunities to participate in ritual acts including individual absolution, holy communion, foot washing (for those who desire to participate) and the stripping of the altar.

There is a sign-up sheet in the Welcoming Area for those who can assist by providing lasagna or other needed dishes and supplies.

Thursday Morning Women's Fellowship

Please join us as we read and discuss

Barking to the Choir:
The Power of Radical Kinship
by Gregory Boyle.

Join us any Thursday morning at 9:45 am

In a moving example of unconditional love in difficult times, Gregory Boyle, the Jesuit priest and New York Times bestselling author of Tattoos on the Heart, shares what working with gang members in Los Angeles has taught him about faith, compassion, and the enduring power of kinship.

REQUEST

Do you have a cause that you volunteer for, or are passionate about?

We would love to hear more about it during REACH time! The REACH team is looking to focus some of our weeks on causes and volunteer opportunities that are important to the people of Prince of Peace. If you have something you care about and would either like to talk about it yourself or can help us get connected with someone else could talk about it, we would love to hear from you. Please talk to or email Denise Johnson to find out more! denisejohnson.ny@gmail.com

NURSERY HELP NEEDED!

The nursery is an important part of our church life together for families with young children in need of a place to let their energy out. For it to be effective, we need to staff it with volunteers! If you would be able to help in this way throughout the year, please speak with Pastor Amber. The goal is to create a group of people to volunteer in the nursery so that it is always staffed and the same people do not need to be in there all the time. For the safety of our children, we will be doing a background check on all volunteers. If you are under the age of 18 and would like to help in the nursery, please also let Pastor Amber know. The extra help is often appreciated!

Palm Sunday Choir Cantata - Please Join Us!

Sunday, April 14th - 8am & 10:30am

One of the church's greatest gifts to humanity is its fostering of music over the centuries. In Jesus's time and before, worshippers sang psalms to glorify God and ask for forgiveness. Christian music has since evolved from chants to intricate choral music, from orchestral oratorios and cantatas to praise bands.

It is in this spirit that we offer this year's Choir Cantata with reading of the Passion according to St. John. This year's Cantata will include Christian Passion music from throughout the history of the church. Please join us!

An update on Albertina & Rodrigo

As many of you know, the Sunday School provides support for three children around the world. For Christmas and the children's birthdays, we let them know they are thought of and loved by sending an additional gift. Alberina and Rodrigo have sent letters letting us know what the gift meant for them. Please see the attached letters and picture made by Rodrigo. Rodrigo's letter came as a typed translation of his original letter but the picture attached is drawn by him.

Peace, Cheryl

Letter from Rodrigo:

Details of use of gift: I will buy a pair of sport shoes.

Dear Sponsor Prince of Peace of Lutheran Church,

Hello! How are you? I am sending a friendly greeting and I want to thank you for the gift that you sent me. I want to tell you that I am back in classes and I am very glad to see my friends and my teacher. I will say goodbye with a hug. I wish that God blesses you always. Thank you!

Rodrigo

Letter from Albertina:

25th January, 2019.

Dear Prince of Peace Lutheran church,
How are you? My family and I are doing fine.
Well, am very grateful for the Christmas gift that you ~~send~~^{sent} for me. I received the sum total of $ 25.00, which in our currency is K 297.63. I used this money to buy clothes for my self and food for my family. While we now in the rain season, we planted maize, groundnuts and cassava, just looking for a huge harvest.
Thank you so much for the love and support shown upon me and my family. May the good lord Almighty continue blessing you.

Yours
ALBERTINA

Celebrate!

By: Rebecca Coffey

Hallelujah! It's time for celebration! Let's celebrate Easter and his rising! Let's celebrate the Earth and all of its inhabitants!

This is the time for rebirth! Easter is joyous time to celebrate all that we have on this Earth. It is important to remember that Earth Day is celebrated this April as well. April 22nd to be exact!

Everyone has heard Reduce-Reuse-Recycle, but what about also remembering to REPLENISH and RESTORE? Even if you reduce your waste, reuse daily items, and recycle all items you can, are you giving back to the Earth all that it has given you? One way is to plant a tree to replenish and restore. Then, tell the tree you love it! We need its' carbon dioxide to survive and it needs our oxygen to survive. Therefore, with many things on our Earth, if we do not replenish and help to restore, there will not be items to reuse and recycle.

The 5 Rs (as I am now calling them) can apply to your relationship with the Earth and our Lord. Ask yourself what you are doing to daily reduce, reuse, recycle, replenish, and restore- yourself, the Earth, and your faith!

Are you looking for ways to get involved and spread the word about the importance of Earth Day? Check out this site!

Lutheran World Relief

Lenten Soap Collection

Lutheran World Relief since the end of WWII has served people in need around the world. Through the Quilts, Fleece Tied Blankets, Kits, Soap and assistance through other programs they practice what Isaiah 40:1 says, “Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.”

Prince of Peace will again host the third stop of a semi-truck in Upstate New York sponsored by LWR to collect area donations of Quilts, Fleece Tied Blankets, Kits and soap on May 11, 2019. For the third year to help fill the truck with donations, we are collecting new bars of soap for LWR during the six weeks of Lent. Soap keeps hands clean, aids with self-esteem, but most of all helps people stay healthy.

Donate any brand of soap in its original wrapping – bath size bars (4 to 5 oz.) are preferred. Multi packs you find at Sam’s or BJ’s would be great.

Here is what we collected during Lent the last two years:

2017 - 511 bars of new soap, weighing 144 lb

2018 – 640 bars of new soap, weighing 164 lb.

2019 – ??? Could we reach 700 bars of soap?

Check out other ways you can support Lutheran World Relief or view some of the videos of their work around the world at lwr.org

Look for the specially marked basket at church starting on Ash Wednesday, March 6 for your soap donations and watch our “soap tower” grow during Lent.

Thanks for stretching your hearts and hands to help your brothers and sisters in need.
